4 languages editions!

The World Directory of Light Aviation has always been a unique publication. Sold worldwide in four different language editions, for well over a decade it has been the only annual at any price which aimed to detail every aircraft that flies for fun*, as well as offering comprehensive coverage of engines, accessories, training, aviation organizations, etc.

2010, the publishers were proud to extend this coverage with a fourth edition, in Chinese. Produced in conjunction with Beijing-based publisher Evergo, it will be distributed by direct mail and will also be available at the Aviation Pavilion of the World Expo in Shanghai.

This exciting entry into the world's most dynamic market complements our strength elsewhere, particularly in North America, where WDLA's sales consistently exceed the specialist magazine average. With some 250 color pages and a print run over 100,000, WDLA is sold not only through shops but also by mail order through the EAA and many other pilot outlets.

If you want to reach the whole world of leisure aviation, there is only one answer: advertise in the World Directory of Light Aviation and choose Worldwide Coverage. Your advertisement will appear in all four language editions (English, French, German and Chinese) and be seen by over 250,000 people across the globe. You can have different wording in each edition at no extra cost, giving you the flexibility to tailor your message independently to each market. Moreover, the World Directory of Light Aviation advertisers receive publicity free of charge on our comprehensive online database at <www.widola.com>. Alternatively, you can choose International Coverage (English, French and German editions) or National Coverage (one European language of your choice).

The World Directory of Light Aviation is the undisputed market leader in its sector. Nothing else is as prestigious, as comprehensive, or as widely read, and nothing else gets referred to time and time again throughout the year. It's unbeatable value for money.
